MISSION TO BUILD

ITS OWN CHAPEL.

The Forest Park Presbyterian Trustees
Accept Proposition of the Reverend W. J. McKittrick.

The Forest Park Presbyterian Mission, localed at No. 449 Manchester avenue, has ecided to buy a lot and build a chapel. This decision was made Thursday night, when the Reverend Doctor W. J. McKittrick, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, made a proposition that if they would raise $2,600 he would see that they got a like sum, possibly $3,900, toward buying the lot and erecting the chapel. This is a mission of the First Church and in appecial charge of the assistant pastor, the Reverend G. W. King, and the outlook for a germanent work is very encouraging.

FIND THE THING THAT FRIGHTENED THE HORSES!

How the King of England Will Be Crowned.

Here, for the first time in this country, will be given the official programme . the great English ceremonial of this month. This feature will be a part of The Sunday Republic and should find a place in every scrapbook. It is a most interesting document.

Frank G. Carpenter,

Who is in Great Britain for The Sun lav Republic, will have an article of muci timeliness and of the keenest interest. There will be good pictures.

The Sunday Republic's Fashion Articles

Have long stood at the fore. Those of to-morrow are to be especially good. You cannot well afford to miss them. The pictures are very striking and the text of the greatest value.

How to Know a * Violin.

Here is an article that will interest a large class of professionals and amateurs. Do you own a Strad? Is it genuine or, is it a copy? If a copy, what kind? Why a new fiddle may be much better than an old one. The article is carefully written by an expert and is elaborately illustrated.

The excellence of the many fixed departments of The Sunday Republic is admitted. They will all be of unusual interest to-morrow.
